Johnny Got His Gun

Chapter 3 (Hospital)

- Joe's left arm is amputated (cut off). He then remembers the wedding ring on it. He has a flashback to his last night with Kareen (girlfriend) before the joining the war. He loses both of his arms.

Johnny Got His Gun

Chapter 1 (“The Phone”)

- Joe hears a phone ringing. This leads to a flashback about him getting a phone call about his father’s death when he was a teenager. Joe realizes that he is sick and is going in and out of consciousness.

Johnny Got His Gun

Chapter 4 (“Girlfriends”)

- Joe remembers when he worked with his friend Howie because their girlfriends cheated on them. Joe punched his best friend, Bill Harper because Bill told Joe about the cheating. Walking by his ex’s house, Joe finds her kissing someone: Bill Harper.

Johnny Got His Gun

Chapter 7 (“The Rat”)

- Joe ponders the realities of war. He begins to feel parts of his injured body. A rat crawls over Joe and starts eating him—night after night.

ASSIGNMENT

Directions:

- ❑ On your notes, answer the following questions:
 1. List as many “horror stories” about the war that Joe mentions during this chapter. What effect do these stories have on you as a reader?
 2. Explain the purpose of the “rat” in the story. According to Joe, why is the rat so important in the story? Explain your thoughts towards the rat in a few sentences.
