
MONDAY

August 24th, 2009 (8.24.2009)

Required Materials:

Pen/Pencil

Agenda:

1. Welcome to English II/III! (3 min)
2. First Day Handouts (2 min)
3. This Week Preview (1-2 min)
4. Review Syllabus (20 min)
5. CoC Announcements (Last 10 min)

Quote of the Week:

“”Motivation is what gets you started. Habit is what keeps you going.”

Welcome to English II/III!

- * My name is Mr. Hampton.
- * Attendance: Please tell me now if you go by another name or if I mispronounce your name!
- * Bryan = Ryan
- * Latataniqua = Nika
- * Jordan = Doza, etc.

First Day of School Handouts

- * You have a lot of handouts on your desk.
 - * Student handbook, code of conduct, emergency forms...
- * Two are extremely important:
 - * Drug and Alcohol Testing form
 - * Emergency Contact form
- * Put these forms in your backpack and give to your parents; you can turn them into me or the front office!

This Week Preview

Day	Activity
Monday	Welcome to English II, Syllabus Review, Classroom Tour HOMEWORK: ALL MATERIALS DUE NEXT MONDAY
Tuesday	Seating charts, Mr. Hampton's Introduction. Quiz #1.
Wednesday	Moral Dilemma Questions.
Thursday/Friday	Textbook pickup; textbook preview day. REMINDERS: ALL MATERIALS DUE NEXT MONDAY; STRIKE SYSTEM BEGINS NEXT WEEK.

Syllabus Review

- * To better understand what I expect from you in this course, let's review the syllabus.
- * As we read, I'll stop and explain some important points in greater detail.
- * Some things on the syllabus have changed, so pay attention and write in items when I tell you to.
- * If you have questions, feel free to raise your hand and ask.

Syllabus Change # 1

* Materials Required:

* Add “Student Planner.”

* This for all classes.

* You cannot go to the bathroom without a student planner.

Reminder: Due Dates

- Due dates for all materials: Next Monday (8.31.2009).
 - This includes 3-ring binder (1 1/2" or larger), 3-ring pencil pouch, 5 dividers, Post-It notes, pens/mechanical pencils, and paper.
- The parent letter may be returned at any time this week, or at the very latest, next Monday (8.31.2009).
- I will remind you every day this week.
- No excuses! This is your first homework grade of the year!

(1st period) Your Schedule...

- * I will pass out your schedules now.
- * Please record your Bus # on your schedule!!!

Classroom Tour

* Follow my pointer around the classroom!

The Last 10 Minutes...

- * Will be spent watching Code of Conduct Announcements.
- * Absolutely no talking...