- WOD:
dialect--speech that is specific to a certain group of people
- Warm Up:
 1. Use the Word of the Day in a sentence.
 2. Imagine you had to live in a foreign land for many years. The people who occupy this foreign land do not speak your language and do not share the same customs as you do--but, they appear friendly. Write and explain some of the challenges you might encounter in this foreign land as well as how you would do your best to survive.

Pass Back Graded Papers

NON
NOTES

- I need 7 volunteers

Pass Back Graded Papers

NOTES

- These volunteers will be passing back papers for the rest of Quarter 1.
- They will receive additional participation credit every week.
- Stay in your seats as these people pass out graded papers
- Place graded papers in Section 2 (Grammar) and 4 (Everything else) of your notebook.

What does this mean?

NONOTES

- A = Check Plus
- B = Check
- C = Check Minus
- F = I/Incomplete

Late/Make Up Work Policy

NONOTES

- I believe in the Mastery System, meaning....
 - You can re-do an assignment as many times as you want.
 - You can turn in late work until grades are due.

What about quizzes?

- You cannot re-do quizzes.

NON
NOTES

What about tests?

NON NOTES

- Re-doing a test?
- It will not be the same test.
- It will be an alternate assignment.

Keep in Mind...

NONOTES

- When I assign homework, it is possible to never do it until the day before grades are due--but it would take you more than 10 hours straight to do 20+ homework's.
- Please do your homework when it is assigned...it is meant to add to your knowledge and to have your weekends to yourself!
- See me at my desk if you have any questions.

Today...

- We'll be reading two selections that fall under the category of "travel journal."

- A description of the author's travels.
- Focused on surviving hardships, meeting new people, viewing new customs, and a detailed analysis of the land.

Today...

- While reading, we'll be stopping to perform a “written conversation.”

NON
NOTES

Written Conversation

NOTES

- Mr. Hampton will ask a question.
- You will answer that question. (1 min)
- You will exchange responses with another student
- You will respond to what that student wrote. (1 min)

- It's like having a conversation with someone, but through writing.
- THERE IS NO TALKING INVOLVED!

Let's Read!

NONOTES

- Turn to pg. 48 --> A Journey Through Texas
 - Focus on the author's description of his travels.
- We'll be stopping to perform written conversations. Be prepared!

Written Conversation Question

- What would you do if you were the author and your Native American guides started to die?

NON
NOTES

Written Conversation Question

NON
NOTES

- What do you think the Native Americans showed no remorse for their dead relatives?

Written Conversation Question

NON
NOTES

- Why would the enemies of the Native Americans be willing to share their possessions with the author?

Let's Read!

NONOTES

- Turn to pg. 52 --> Boulders Taller Than The Great Tower of Seville
 - Focus on the author's description of his travels.

Seville, Spain --> Giralda

NONOTES

Assignment

NON
NOTES

- Literacy/reading is highly connected to the arts--that is, pictures, paintings, sculptures, etc.

Assignment

NONOTES

- I want you to draw a line down the center of your paper.
- On the left side, draw the most important scene from A Journey Through Texas.
- On the right side, draw the most important scene from Boulders Taller Than The Great Tower of Seville.
- Use crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.
