- WOD:
apathy: a lack of interest in something
- Warm Up:
 1. Use the Word of the Day in a sentence.
 2. Reviewing over the FCA is an important part of this class. You must know why answers are correct and others are wrong. Now, think of ways you would like your class to review over your FCA for the rest of the year--individual, whole group, project, etc. Mr. Hampton is open to suggestions!

Clip: Vantage Point

NOTES

- This movie is about one event...the shooting of the President.
- This clip will show different points of view (POV) for this one event.
- Remember, POV is about looking at the story through a character's eyes--what they see, think, experience, etc.
 - 1st POV = A news reporter
 - 2nd POV = A secret service agent

Stories: Flipped & Diving Under

NONOTES

- This story is about one event...a boy and girl growing up together.
- This story will show different points of view (POV) for this one event.
- Remember, POV is about looking at the story through a character's eyes--what they see, think, experience, etc.
 - 1st POV = What the boy thinks about the girl
 - 2nd POV = What the girl thinks about the boy
- Hampton's Popcorn for reading--pay attention--I will call on you.

Extended Response Question

NOTES

- On the back of your Matrix, answer this question:
- Question: Contrast the point of view of the boy with the girl in this story. How are their viewpoints of each other different?
- Remember, you need 4 supporting details. Use your Matrix worksheet for help in using details from the text!
