Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Required Materials

1. pen/pencil
2. 1 sheet of paper
   - Warm up

Announcements

- Mr. Hampton book chat on The Boy in the Stripped Pajamas is today during 4th hour.

Agenda

1. Word of the Day and Warm Up
2. Big Questions
3. Homework: Bring a Pencil Tomorrow
4. "Horrors of the Internet"
5. Groups of Two: Resource Scavenger Hunt
6. Exit Slips

11.17.2009 (5 min)

Timer

- WOD:

  conceive: to form an idea; imagine

- Warm Up:

  1. Use the Word of the Day in a sentence that shows the meaning of conceive.

  2. Think back to resource materials. Explain the purpose of each of these resources:

  Dictionary, Thesaurus, Encyclopedia, Atlas, Almanac

"Big Questions" For The Week

Monday
- ✓ How can a "Dual Entry Journal" help me when reading?
- ✓ Why is background knowledge important when reading?

Tuesday
- ❑ When should I use a particular resource material?

Thursday/Friday
- ✓ What is Professor Know-It-All and how can it help me?
- ❑ Is hunting animals an acceptable behavior in society?

Homework

Write in agenda, planner, or sticky-note:

❑ Bring a pencil tomorrow (yes, this is for a grade and counts towards the "Snack While You Work Challenge")

N O

N O T E S

"Horrors of the Internet"

- Wikipedia.Org
- Flat Earth Society
- Time Cube
- MartinLutherKing.Org

NO NOTES

Resource Scavenger Hunt

N O N O T E S

Rules

1. No more than two people working together.
2. Record your answers on ONE piece of notebook paper
   - Make sure to put both of your names on the sheet.
3. Only one person can get out of their seat at a time
4. You may only have one material out at a time:
   1. Need a dictionary? Send one member of group to grab it. Need an atlas now? Send one member of group to return dictionary and grab an atlas.

Resource Scavenger Hunt

NO NOTES

Resources You Can Use

1. Dictionary
2. Thesaurus
3. Encyclopedia
4. Atlas
5. Almanac

Resource Scavenger Hunt

Get Started! Resources are at the front.