

Directions: Follow the organizer below for information on your final project for Fast Food Nation. Your project will be due on Friday, April 8, 2011 (4.8.11).

G	Goal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To gain information on the fast food business before you decide to open up your own fast food restaurant. To write a 2-3 page, typed, doubled-spaced essay on whether or not you'd open a fast food restaurant, based on what you learned while reading Fast Food Nation.
R	Role	High School Graduate
A	Audience	Self
S	Situation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You have recently graduated from high school. You have decided to not go straight into college, but are looking at the possibility of opening your own fast food restaurant. Fast Food Nation was recommended to you by a friend currently in the fast food industry. You are to read the book and reflect on its content before deciding whether or not to open your own fast food restaurant.
P	Product	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2-3 page, typed, double-spaced essay. Paper will analyze any two (2) concepts from your Student Learning Map (SLM).
S	Standards for Judging	Rubric will have three areas of grading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ideas 2. Support (Quotations / Examples) 3. Conventions (Grammar) The rubric will be passed out approximately 1 week before the paper due date. Don't forget: Your paper must be typed!