Welcome to AICE Language Exam

Directions (Volume-O: 0):

- Answer questions on own sheet of paper
- Explain answers fully and using full sentences when required.
- If finished early, begin work on your homework (formalism + reading log).

Welcome to AICE Language Exam

Directions: Welcome to your first exam. Remember, exam questions are not meant to be a mystery; if you review over your study guide by answering smaller questions and defining vocabulary, you will pass your exam. Please answer all questions on a sheet of paper (or two if you need it).

1. Explain the purpose and importance of the following "materials":
 - a. Composition notebook
 - b. 3-ring binder
 - c. Student planner
2. What are "reading logs"? How do they differ from weekly reflections?
3. What was your summer reading assignment?
4. What are study guides (also called SLMs) and how are they used in this class?
5. How does the scoreboard work? Please make sure to explain how points are banked at the end of the day.
6. Explain all levels of Volume-O, from 0 to 10.
