Notes

The Salem Witch Trials

T A K E N O T E S

- Began in 1692 (200 years after Columbus)
- Resulted in the executions of 20 people (and dogs) and the imprisonment of over 200 people.

Samuel Parris

- Samuel Parris, the Puritan minister of Salem, Massachusetts.
 - Not well liked in his congregation because of harsh preaching and rigid values.

Betty Parris

T A K E N O T E S

- “Witch Trials” began with Samuel’s daughter, Betty...she:
 - Ate stew along with other girls and became sick shortly after.
 - Had an “epileptic fit.”
 - Screamed, threw things around the room, uttered strange sounds, and crawled under furniture.
 - Also covered her ears when the Bible was read aloud.

Abigail Williams

T A K E N O T E S

- Niece of Samuel Parris
- Also began to have “epileptic fits” (after Betty) and other symptoms
- Began accusing other villagers of being witches and casting spells on her and other girls
